A | Winter Holidays

In 2009, the U.S. Postal Service celebrates the winter holiday season with stamps featuring a reindeer, snowman, gingerbread man and toy soldier. To create these stamps, artist Joseph Cudd first sketched the designs by hand and then finished them on the computer using a graphics tablet.

An independent federal agency, the U.S. Postal Service is the only delivery service that visits every address in the nation — 146 million homes and businesses. It has 37,000 retail locations and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to pay for operating expenses, not tax dollars. The Postal Service has annual revenues of $75 billion and delivers nearly half the world's mail.

A Thanksgiving Day Parade

Drawing on the long and rich visual history of Thanksgiving Day parades in the U.S., stamp artist Paul Rogers based his designs on American advertising and poster art from the mid-20th century. Rogers used a combination of airbrush and digital medium to create the colorful and nostalgic images featured on these four se-tenant stamps.

B Madonna and Sleeping Child by Sassoferatto

The 2009 Christmas stamp features Madonna and Sleeping Child, a painting by Italian artist Giovanni Battista Salvi (1609-1685), more commonly known as Sassoferatto. The painting is currently in the collection of Hearst Castle in California. The issuance of the stamp coincides with the 400th anniversary of the birth of the artist.
